

Teen Seminar: A Workshop for the Next Generation

Saturday, June 22, 2019

Elizabethtown Community and Technical College
Elizabethtown, KY

So You Want to Be an Author?

This 3-hour interactive workshop geared for teenagers will introduce the basics of writing for the publishing world.

In the first session, participants will learn about guidelines for genres, common terminology, and the three rules which must never be broken. During the second session, participants will examine the three-act structure and develop a loose three-act outline.

Participants will leave with a handful of resources to help them grow and the tools necessary to write a story fit for the publishing world.

This seminar will be led by Crystal Caudill. Crystal is an educator, award-winning author, and a member of ACFW, RWA, and Novel.Academy. For her, teaching the next generation of authors is a privilege and a passion.

Schedule

7:00 a.m.	Registration
7:30 a.m.	Early Bird Sessions:  So You're a Newbie By Carlton Hughes  Taming the Bronco: Microsoft Word for Writing Wranglers By Rhonda Dragomir  How to Write Winning Queries By Tracy Crump
8:30 a.m.	Announcements/Worship
9:00 a.m.	Teen Seminar Begins Sessions 1 & 2 By Crystal Caudill
12:00 p.m.	Teen Seminar Ends Lunch Provided

After the Seminar, teens are welcome to stay for the remaining time of the conference. They are invited to attend additional conference courses, and sign up for mentor, editor, and or agent appointments.

Registration Information

Teen must be 13-17 years old to attend at the time of the seminar

Cost: $50

Registration Deadline: Friday, June 21st

Please Register Online at kychristianwriters.com/register

Contact Email: info@kychristianwriters.com